Kearney & Company, P.C.'s Independent Evaluation of the Federal Housing Finance Agency's Information Security Program – 2015

Audit Report • AUD-2015-002 • September 9, 2015

The Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) Office of Inspector General (OIG) issued the subject report on September 9, 2015. The Federal Information Security Management Act of 2002 (FISMA) requires the Inspector General of each agency to annually conduct an independent evaluation of the agency's information security program. OIG contracted with Kearney & Company, P.C. to perform this audit.

AUDIT OBJECTIVE: The objective of this audit was to evaluate FHFA's information security program and practices, including compliance with FISMA and related information security policies, procedures, standards, and guidelines.

Because information in this report could be abused to circumvent FHFA's internal controls, it has not been released publicly.
